

Peter Beck of Georgetown was a friendly caller yesterday.

Fred Rinne returned from a two weeks visit in Hot Springs S.D. Friday.

Job printing of every description neatly and promptly executed at this office.

J.N. Ridenour, Merna, was a city visitor yesterday. We acknowledge a friendly call.

I am now prepared to do plain family sewing, also dress making.
MRS. LILLIE KING.

A vote for Ross Pickett for city clerk will be a vote to encourage a young man in a laudable ambition.

At the school caucus Saturday Dr J.J. Pickett and W.B. Eastham were nominated members of the school board.

Wm. Harold, of Hoosier, attended the assessors meeting on Tuesday. He is assessor of Hayes township.

The dedication of the new M. E. church will be on Sunday, April 9th, instead of Easter Sunday, as some understand.

A packed caucus secures a nomination, but the demo-pop crowd will find that it does not always insure success at the polls.

C. W. Beal and wife are in the city, having arrived Monday night. They came up on account of the serious illness of John Beal, second son of his brother Elgin. C. W. will remain in charge of the Beacon until Elgin can again resume charge.

The "Gold King", given at the opera house Tuesday night by the Broken Bow Dramatic Co., was the best production the company has yet put on the stage. The house was crowded, and it was an appreciative audience. Each person deserves special mention, but lack of time prevents it.

Prof. Adamson informs us that the poles, wire and instruments for his telephone system, have arrived. He will have work commenced on the poles at once and as soon as the frost is out of the ground he will begin putting up the line. He has already made arrangements to extend the line to Ansley and Merna, and it is to be hoped that he will be able to arrange to connect Sargent, Callaway, Anselmo and Arnold. Westerville also ought to be included.

Boys with hats on the back of their heads and long hair hanging down over their foreheads, and with cigarettes and smutty words in their mouths, are cheaper stuff than old shoes. Nobody wants them at any price, men will not employ them, girls will not marry them, they are not worth their keeping, and they will never be able to keep themselves. Let every young man who reads this description look at himself in the mirror and if it fits his case resolve to change his style and habits.—Ex.

W. G. Seeley and family are about to remove to Broken Bow, at which place he is to take charge of the Foster & Smith lumber yard. This town will regret to lose Mr. Seeley and his estimable family. Mr. Seeley is a good business man and what may be termed a hustler, and under his management the lumber business of that company at this place has prospered. The family have many accomplishments and will be greatly missed in church work and in social circles. We wish them an equal measure of success and prosperity in their new home.—Central City Republican.

Charley Myers was back to his old camping ground Sunday.

Mrs. Govier and daughter, of Swiss Valley, Sundayed at Mrs. Uhlman's.

W. S. Smets was in the valley Monday. Monday evening he went over north to see how he stood in.

The rain maker tried ever so hard, but all he got was snow; he will have to sojourn another week in the town of Broken Bow.

Aslak Anderson has bled out to Mr. Weinman for the season. He says his object is to educate himself in the German language. After he has been there seven months he ought to be able to say, "Paulens vils dy high rodden."

Genet.

C. J. Stallings' wife and child have just arrived from Iowa. They will try farming this season.

Chas. Freeman has rented his farm for '99 to a gentleman from France by the name of Whiskers.

While the ancient rain makers of Custer county are taking a rest, they might wheel in a little sun in our back yard.

Mrs. Rosa Burger has been sick for the past two weeks, but under the care of Dr. Wamsley is now getting better.

D. E. Manning is the new mail carrier. After trying about a hundred they have seemingly got the right man.

We should sow our wheat a trifle thicker, if seed raised here is to be used, on account of sprouting in the shock last season.

A new and very young lady arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Fred more, Jr., very recently. All parties interested are doing well under the care of Dr. Wamsley.

Yesterday, 18th inst., the Misses Annie, Belle and Katie Sturdivant paid a visit to Mrs. Rosa Burger, the genial P. M. at Geret, to cheer her in her illness, which had the desired effect, as today she is much better.

Is it the cold and reckless manner or the massive intellect of the pop gimlets published in Custer county that are boring a hole through the north pole, that is working in the interest of the bloated coal dealer of Broken Bow?

We think it would be advisable on account of liability of more wind to locate the town of West Star before it is lost sight of. West Star needs no star, as we are sure the star of the east is already lost sight of in that section.

S. D. Butcher's residence burned on the 4th inst. This is a serious loss to Mr. B., as about everything was destroyed in the fire; no insurance. A sad thing seems to be the natural thing for Custer county, as it will not burn.

T. D. Gill and wife and Mrs. Tom Maple, Mrs. Gill's sister, have just returned from Ohio, coming over from Anselmo by mail stage. Tom says they were a half day going to the railroad, a distance of four miles, with a four horse team and 400 pounds of baggage, and then walked up the hills, which was nearly all the way. They called the roads heavy back in Ohio.

Ryno

Chumley and Emfield are shipping cattle and hogs to Omaha.

Mrs. Haeleie is about well. Willis McClure has not improved any.

Stock is still in fair condition; very few have died as far as heard from.

Miss Ellen Conley closed a six months term of school at Oconto last week.

John Reinhard is giving suburban delivery. He has eight boxes on the route.

Samuel Province and Geo. Hoffman, after an absence of four years, have returned to Custer.

Joseph Kudelka, our efficient carrier, is leaving the route. He is going home to Sioux county, Neb.

There are omens of spring; migrating fowls have arrived, prairie fowls are cooling and larks are singing.

Judge Bobbitt has been advanced above us ten cents a day fourth class postmaster. Tuckerville is a money order office.

F. E. Conley moved to J. W. Conley's yesterday. He will put out a crop and in early autumn he proposes to migrate to Oklahoma.

Farmers are getting a little nervous over the late spring; try and be patient; seed time and harvest has been promised, and we have never been disappointed.

Chester Lawhead, alias Murphy, came to pay a visit to his old neighbors some four weeks since. Last week a sheriff from Wyoming came down and arrested him. It seems he had a weakness for horse flesh.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject is narrated by him as follows: "I was ill, a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in my back and sides, no appetite gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately a friend advised trying Electric Bitter; and to my great joy and surprise the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man.
